

OLD TOWN PTC MINUTES JANUARY 4, 2012

Happy New Year to all!!!!

The PTC is starting a new calendar year with lots of ideas and enthusiasm. We are happy with our progress in 2011 and we are looking forward to the upcoming events in 2012. Please come and join us.

Fundraising update:

We collected $3,594.00 in box tops this last period. That is wonderful!!!!!! Thank you to all who clipped, sorted and counted. Please continue to clip box tops, there will be another collection period in March.

The winter raffle brought in $329.00. Thank you again for those who participated.

There will be a valentine raffle and a sale of Castine Candles in the future. Raffle tickets for the kayak are still available in the office.

The Art to Remember project has been adopted by Mrs. Dunphy for the year, art materials are needed for art class.

Upcoming Events:

Science Night 3-5 grade on Feb. 9: Volunteers may be needed to help out for this. The jobs may include helping out at a station or helping students move from one activity to the next.

Talent Show, Feb. 3: Volunteers to sell concessions and help with the organization of students during the show will be needed. A set up crew for the concessions and a clean up crew will also be needed. We plan to sell popcorn, drinks, fruit and baked goods. If anyone would like to make baked goods please let a PTC member know.

Winter Wellness Day: This day will take place the day before February vacation and volunteers are also welcome. More information will be coming soon.

March:

The book fair and dance will be held in March.

April:

A tentative date for the next movie night is April 27.

If there are any volunteer opportunities that you would like to participate in please contact Danielle Pindaric dpomarico@roadrunner.com

THE NEXT MEETING HAS BEEN CHANGED TO FEBRUARY 1
